Snow Fact:

According to Guinness World Records, the largest snowflakes on record were 15 inches (38 cm) in diameter and 8 inches thick. They fell on Fort Keogh, in eastern Montana on 28 January 1887. Nearby ranchers described the flakes as "larger than mild pans" and measured them; "8 inches thick".

Happy New Year!

It's time to go skiing! I can hardly wait to get out west and point them downhill! Our December trippers had a great time in Taos, New Mexico and got a massive dump of thigh-deep powder on their last day. The three remaining ski trip destinations for the year, Telluride, Crested Butte and Mammoth Mountain, promise to be awesome also. For those looking ahead to September, the details of the Machu Picchu tour are finally coming together. It will be an adventure of a lifetime! Until then, let it snow, let it blow, hit the slopes!

2015 Trips -----

Telluride, CO: January 24th - 31st, 2015

This 7 day FSC trip begins this Saturday! Our 54 club members are anxiously awaiting the flight to begin the fun and experience this great mining town and ski-in/ski-out accommodations!

Crested Butte, CO: February 21st - 28th, 2015

Skiers are ready to experience one of the 'Last Great Ski Towns in America' going February 21 - time for plenty more snow to hit the slopes too!

Mammoth, CA: February 28th - Mar 7th, 2015

Miles for Myles 5K Family Fun Run/Walk

Saturday January 17th was the grand finale of this wonderful event which celebrates the life of Myles Freeberg, son of long-time club members, Tom and Kathy Freeberg.

The weather was brisk and sunny, perfect for the occasion. Hundreds came out to run/walk/ride in a stroller or trot on a leash to support the Myles Freeberg Foundation, Inc. The funds raised go to scholarships and internships that will help high school seniors realize their dream of pursuing a higher

Returning to the Hill? Older Skiers Take Heart. Snow enthusiasts who are 50 and older comprise a fast growing segment of the US ski industry. A National Ski Areas Association survey shows that, per capita, skiers 65 and older ski almost twice the number of days as the national average of five.
